

Gold Medal Shows would like to introduce our Read to Ride Program to the schools, students, and libraries in the community.

What is Read to Ride?

Read (2) books, get (6) FREE carnival ride tickets at the 2011 East Point Main Street Association Fall Festival.

Who Can Participate?

Children age 12 and under.

How Does It Work?

Children read or parents read to them (2) books then fill in the official Read To Ride report form with brief summaries of approx. 25 words in length each. Children under age 6 are welcome to draw pictures. Parent/teacher signs the form verifying that the books are appropriate for the child's reading level and that the child has read the books.

What's Next?

To receive ride passes, children bring this completed form to the Ticket booth located at the East Point Main Street Association Fall Festival Sept. 28 – Oct. 2, 2011.

The child must be present to redeem form for ride tickets.

Restrictions

The following restrictions apply: Only (1) one form per child. No photo copies of reports. All work must be original.

Fair Info:

In the "Commons" area on Main Street across from the East Point MARTA station and beside the East Point Library.
